Our Parish

The Parish of Laverton is one of the fastest growing Parishes in the Archdiocese of Melbourne, incorporating the communities of Laverton, Altona Meadows and Point Cook. The Parish boasts five Primary schools; St Martins, Queen of Peace, Lumen Christi, Stella Maris and St Mary of the Cross.

In 1969, the Parish of St Martin de Porres Laverton began. Construction of the St Martin de Porres Church and community facility was completed and weekly masses were held there.

From early 1982 to the end of 1992, the Queen of Peace School facilities in Altona Meadows were used as a Mass Centre. The first permanent place of worship for the Queen of Peace Community was constructed in 1992. From 2001 a Sunday Mass in the parish was also celebrated at the R.A.A.F. Chapel Point Cook. As of the 7th of February 2016, Mass is now celebrated at Stella Maris School hall, Point Cook.

Mass has continued to be celebrated at St. Martin de Porres, Bellin Street, Laverton every weekend since 1969.
